OFFICER INVOLVED SHOOTING 3200 BLOCK OF NORTH ALVERNON WAY

UPDATE – JULY 27, 2015**

The preliminary investigation of this incident has revealed that the male suspect was armed with two large knives. Witnesses on scene reported the male advanced towards the officers with the knives and it was at that time the officers discharged their weapons. The suspect was transported to a local area hospital where he remains in stable but serious condition.

The officers involved in the shooting are Officer Sean Callaway and Officer Zachary Barghout. Both Officers are 2-year veterans of the Tucson Police Department. They are assigned to Operations Division Midtown.

Further information regarding this incident will be released as it becomes available.

_____ Officer Kristopher Goins – July 27, 2015 _____

The Tucson Police Department is actively investigating an officer involved shooting that took place this morning in the 3200 block of North Alvernon Way.

At approximately 6:45 a.m., officers from Operations Division Midtown were dispatched to an apartment complex to check the welfare of an adult male who resides at that location. Upon arrival, officers made contact with the individual at his apartment. During the initial contact the individual armed himself with multiple weapons and charged the officers. Both of the officers on scene discharged their firearms and the suspect was struck several times. The officers immediately began rendering first aid to the suspect using their Individual First Aid Kits (IFAK). Tucson Fire responded to the scene and transported the suspect to Banner University Medical Center with life-threatening injuries. The officers were not injured during the incident.
